Mary Kyle Dalias Thinks Her Brother Is Not Dead.

Although three days have passed since George Kyle, the well known actor, has shown any signs of life, his sister, Mrs. Mary Kyle Dalias, of 309 West One Hundred and Twelith street, still believes that her brother is lying in a trance.

It on passed some time ago declaring all the city offices vacant:

City clerk, W. E. O'Connor.

City Altorney, James A. Dempsey.

Receiver of Taxes, Martin Issier.

City Treasurer, James N. Arbuckle.

The remaining officers were allowed to held over for a montu. Alderman Wagner, a Republican, voted with the Democrats, giving them the necessary sixteen votes.

W. B. Guild was elected City Counsel and James A. Dempsey City Attorney.

The proceedings passed off quietly and the session lasted only half an hour.

John Keenan is theroughly disgusted with the verdict for $80.064, which the jury in the Supreme Court yesterday found against him in favor of George P. Upington, who claims that he loaned Keenan the money ten years ago.

Nearly half of this amount is for interest, the principal being $43.000. Judge Lawrence added to the verdict an extra allowance of the court of the No steps have yet been taken towards
